

Teamlead Logistics (m/w/d) - from 19€/h - 3-shift-model/ 7 days a week

(3028)

📍 Standort: Florstadt 📄 Anstellungsart(en): Vollzeit 📄 Arbeitszeit: 38 - 38 Stunden pro Woche 📄 Gehaltsspektrum: 19 - 23 Euro pro Stunde

We are recruiting for our client:

Do you have experience in logistics, stay on top of things even when goods volumes are high, and know how to motivate and organise a team? Then this could be your next opportunity!

Our client in Florstadt is looking for several experienced Logistics Team Leaders (m/f/d), who will take responsibility for day-to-day operations and confidently lead teams of 20 to 50 employees. You will coordinate sorting operations as well as inbound and outbound activities, plan staffing levels and ensure that goods, people and processes are in the right place at the right time.

If you enjoy taking responsibility, work in a solution-oriented way and keep a cool head in a dynamic environment, apply now!

Start date: Mid-August to no later than the end of September 2026

Pay: from €19/hour (depending on professional experience) + shift allowances - please state your salary expectations if applicable

Working hours: 100% full-time (40 hours/week)

Shift times: 06:00 to 14:30 / 13:30 to 22:30 / 22:00 to 06:00

Working pattern: 3-shift system - Monday to Sunday - including weekends

Employment model: Temporary agency employment

Place of work: Florstadt

Sound interesting?

Let's find out whether you and our client are a good match.

Your responsibilities:

To give you a clear picture of what to expect in this role, here are the key responsibilities:

- Leading and coordinating 20-50 employees on a daily basis
- Workforce and capacity planning, including workstation allocation and attendance checks
- Ensuring compliance with internal policies and statutory requirements (e.g. safety standards, SOPs)
- Using the Amazon system to manage the flow of goods (sortation status, goods movements and wave planning)
- Preparing and analysing logistics KPIs to support continuous improvement
- Onboarding new employees and conducting internal training

Holding regular team meetings and promoting effective team communication

Did you find yourself nodding along to many of these points? - Great!

What matters to us is that you are the right fit as a person - you can learn the rest.

To help you assess whether the position matches your strengths, here are the key requirements:

Hard skills - What you should ideally bring:

- Completed vocational training in business administration or logistics, with relevant work experience, preferably in the logistics sector
- Leadership experience and workforce planning skills

- Very good knowledge of warehouse management systems (e.g. SAP) and MS Office
- Strong teamwork and communication skills
- Strong problem-solving skills, flexibility and resilience
- Very good English skills (German is not essential)
- Willingness to work shifts (3-shift system - Monday to Sunday - including weekends)

Technical knowledge is important - of course. But the way you approach your work is just as important. That is why we place particular value on your personal strengths:

- Independent and structured way of working
- Motivation to contribute and actively help shape processes
- Ability to manage several tasks simultaneously
- Reliability and careful handling of goods
- Ability to work under pressure during periods of high goods volumes
- Team spirit and clear communication
- Physical fitness and stamina
- Class B driving licence and own car desirable (due to accessibility of the work location)

If you can see yourself in this role and are ready to take the next step in logistics, simply apply with us. - We will get back to you promptly and discuss everything else with you.

What we offer:

- Long-term assignment with a reputable client company and good prospects of permanent employment
- Good accessibility of the client site, including by public transport
- Personal, collaborative support from our branch team
- Advice on other vacancies and career opportunities, if desired
- Up to 30 days of annual leave
- Flexible options for managing your working time account
- Straightforward submission of your monthly working hours
- Employee referral bonus (€150 for each successful referral)
- Exclusive employee discounts with many retailers (e.g. Zalando, IKEA, HelloFresh! - participating providers may change)
- Free parking
- Christmas and vacation bonuses, employer-funded capital-forming benefits

Does this sound like the right job for you?

Then simply send us your documents or, initially, the key information about your profile. The following details are particularly helpful for the first contact:

- CV
- Training / qualifications
- Relevant work experience
- Additional qualifications, certificates or licences
- Availability for shift work
- Possible start date
- Telephone number and email address
- If relevant: residence permit / work permit
- In brief: anything that helps us get to know you better.

For any further questions, please contact us on 06131/276 44 60 or 0160/92940996 (WhatsApp only), or email mainz@aktivpersonalservice.de. Everything will, of course, be treated confidentially and discreetly.

What happens next?

Once we receive your application, we will contact you personally without delay, to clarify any initial questions. We will then review your documents carefully and get back to you within 3 working days.

If everything is a good fit, the next step is an invitation to a personal interview. This can take place by telephone or, if you prefer, over coffee or tea at our office.

And if this position is not the right fit: Please still get in touch - we may have a suitable alternative for you.

- Access to further vacancies - including “hidden positions” that are not publicly advertised
- Full control - We only share your documents with your express consent
- Less application effort - a structured process and fast feedback
- Personal support / Greater clarity - we talk openly with you about which assignments suit you professionally and personally, and support you throughout your application process
- Discreet and confidential - even if you are applying while currently employed

Equal Opportunities & Diversity

Diversity and equal opportunities are important to us. We therefore welcome all applications, regardless of gender, age, origin, religion, sexual identity, beliefs or disability.

Data Protection

By submitting your application, you consent to us processing your personal data exclusively for the purpose of handling your application.

further information on data protection will, of course, be provided during the application process.
